One Spirit - Many Voices

Questing

Byline: Rev. Dr. J.

There is nothing like starting a new year with a spiritual practice like questing. It is a new year and time for us to shake off that which scares us or that which we believe we know for sure. It is time for us to engage in some new adventures and be willing to take some risks in our exploration of self and our relationship with the Universe and the Divine.

The spiritual practice of questing involves traveling someplace we have been, confronting difficulties, dangers and coming home with new understandings of who we are, the world in which we live and our relationship with the Divine. Many faith traditions and spiritual paths talk about the importance of pilgrimages, as a time for healing and renewal. Quests are a time to explore our own spiritual beliefs, a need to find answers, a need to release, or a need to give thanks.

When most people think about quests, they envision vision quests, which normally require you to leave home, and spend time alone in nature. For me, given my limited ability to travel, I do my questing in our prayer and meditation garden. It is a space where I can go and sit and seek the answers I need. It is a space where I can spend time seeking the gift or insight I need in my journey. During the winter season, when I cannot sit in the garden due to the snow, I do an inner journey through my journaling, some of which I share in my blogs. Questing is about seeking replies in areas where you have never thought to go before.

Why quest? It pushes us out of our comfort zones and steers us away from our comfortable answers. It reminds us to be adventurous and open ourselves up to the answers that do not come to us in our comfort zones. These quests, regardless of where we go, broaden our horizons and help us develop the skills to thrive in new situations. Quests teach us how to take risks and move through any fears that may be holding us back.

Questing has for me, pushed me to move beyond what I think I know. It reminds me that certainty is rigid, questing keeps me fluid and ever evolving. It reminds me that I do not know it all and that I must always stay open to learning. Questing, like questioning, reminds me to be a seeker, to keep searching for new and loving ways to meet the challenges of our time.

This month, may we open ourselves up to the quests that avail themselves to us and the courage to question and be open to the possibilities that lie beyond the walls of our certainties. ♦

What's New?

- ♥ It's a new year and we are moving in some new directions
- ♥ We are trying to ensure that everything we do each month is in support of the spiritual practice of the month. So our blogs and thoughts for the day will continue to focus on the spiritual practice for the month, but now so will our offerings.
- ♥ We have changed the name of Healing Harbor to Readings and Reiki night to be more reflective of what we do.
- ♥ We are saying goodbye to our Living the Five Agreements Group. It has been an amazing journey with this group, however, we will be integrating some of this into our new programming.
- ♥ Our new offering on Wednesday nights will be Spiritual Practice Night. Each week will be a different experience by all designed to assist with our personal exploration and spiritual development associated with the spiritual practice for the month.

Do you know about our Plant a Seed Program. Help support our ability to provide low and no cost offerings to the world by making a monthly donation. All gifts are welcomed and appreciated.

We are always open to new opportunities to assist you in your spiritual journey. If you have an idea for something you would like to see us offer, please let us know. We are here to support you in your spiritual evolution and transformation.

As always, we are ever so grateful for your ongoing love and support. If you would like to offer a course here, please contact us at 585-729-6113 or via email at Inspiritual@ymail.com. ♦

Our Wish List

We have a few things on our wish list for this year. So if you feel led to give us a gift, here is what we are seeking:

- Scholarship Fund ($40.00 per month) - love offerings for those who cannot afford our offerings/partnership work;
- Gift Certificates to Home Depot or The Garden Factory for Prayer & Meditation Garden;
- Gift Certificate to Wegman's, for coffee/tea/paper products;
- Cairn for center (approximately two feet in diameter);
- Tibetan prayer flags which will hang from one of the existent trees;
- Small outdoor sculptures of animals to be tucked in and throughout the grasses;

- Advertise in local community newspaper ($130.00 every six weeks);
- Advertise in City newspaper's Mind Body Spirit section ($120.00 per week);

- Trademark our name ($325.00).

You can plant a seed in these new ministries by making a monthly donation of as little as $5.00 a month. ♦

"Essential oils are a wonderful supplement to many of your daily life activities!"

Flower of the Morning

Byline: Kelleigh Larsson

Welcome to 2017! I am excited to announce a new layout for our monthly oil article. Each month we will feature oil, with a question and answer format. This month we are going to talk about Ylang-Ylang. This oil on a medicinal level is a bit misconstrued, and my objective today is to clarify and offer some basic information.

Question: "I have seen Ylang-Ylang listed as an ingredient in many perfumes and aromatherapy oil blends, are there any actual benefits, or is it just used as a fragrance?"

Answer: The simple answer to your question is 'Yes'. In some cases, especially as it relates to inclusion in a perfume, it is being used as a fragrance, an additive.

In essential oil blends and when it stands alone, it can have some amazing benefits when properly extracted via steam distillation. Some of the potential medicinal benefits may include assistance with hormone balancing, healing of the skin and hair, soothing eczema and its most notable effect is its impact on an individual's mood. It is because of the later side effect, that you find Ylang-Ylang as an ingredient in multiple perfumes and specialty blend. Its' aroma has both an uplifting and calming scent. The next time you are out and you walk by someone that has a warm, rounded, floral scent feel free to inhale deeply, the rest of your day may be just a little bit calmer.

It is an essential oil recommended for individuals dealing with certain mental health concerns. Subsequently when used as a supportive ingredient in skin and hair products, it has a twofold benefit, topical and aromatic. Additionally, there is some evidence of this oil having anti-septic properties, which might also add to why we so often see it used in skin care products.

Two fun facts about this oil: The oil is best when derived from plants that are harvested in the morning, and in other countries, it has been used as an aphrodisiac. For more information about Ylang Ylang essential oil, please refer to the doTERRA® and/or Young Living™ websites.

Product recommendation: doTERRA Console - This is one of my favorite blends as I find it soothing and very stimulating at the same time. It is in my top ten (10) most used and recommended to my clients. Book recommendation: Lotion Making: 25 Lotion Recipe Guide for Beginners Hobby or Business by Jennifer Tynan.

Please be aware that although you will find it noted on the ingredient lists of many oil blends and herbal supplements many of these products are not FDA approved. Consumers should only use these products with the approval of a medical professional, due to the possibility of them inducing nausea and/or headaches upon ingestion. ♦

"We were able to reach more this year but, would love to increase that number in 2017."

Smiles for Children

Hi, I am Joann. I run the Facebook page Smiles for Children (https://www.facebook.com/pg/Smiles-for-Children-605889446139686/about/?ref=page_internal) and the sponsor only group, Smiles for Christmas (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/581748685193502/>).

We try to reach as many kids across the United States as we can. Our goal is to help send smiles to children across America during the Christmas season, where financial conditions would have made this otherwise unachievable.

The Name

Byline: Gary Bertnick

A cloud of dust far below the stars, swirls about
Irritates the eyes
Disturbs the senses
Ties little knots in the mind
Aggravates the soul
Twisted thoughts that swirl with the repeated confusion,
Negative things, borderline destructive things
Memories of the past
Relationships and circumstances
Good taken hold of, good lost
Foolishness pursued, stumbled over often;
But now, the Name,
The Name above all dwells within
Greatness beyond this Earthly realm
What the world does not understand
Nor those enslaved by the world,
What those who belong to the world will never desire to embrace;
The Name is spoken within the human spirit
Where an eternal Light glows
A divine Gift from above;
The Light brightens the soul
Even radiates from the body
As heavenly Spirit Wind chases all demons away
Darkness of the "fallen one" flees the only Light
It always does, it always will.
The mind and soul become cleansed of lies
Free of guilt and all fears
All thoughts taken captive as written in the Book
His Holy Presence becomes Peace within
Rises from the place of eternal rest
Forever before the King's Throne,
The Father's Gift of freedom
Wrapped in beauty about the Word spoken
Emmanuel our Present from our Creator
"The Word made flesh"
The Name above every name-
Yeshua Messiah.

Sympathy was not forthcoming. "You're a world-renowned spiritual teacher and intuitive guide," people jeered. "How could you not have seen this coming?" Having intuitive abilities didn't make her superhuman. Nor did it exempt her from being wounded or suffering the pain of loss and the consequences of our all-too-human traits such as anger, resentment, and pride—traits that can lead even the best of us to stray from our spiritual path.

How to Become a Community Sponsor

*"Interested in becoming an Inspiritual
community sponsor?
Here's how..."*

Inspirpiritual is a space where all can come for spiritual growth, evolution, and transformation regardless of income. We are intentional about increasing the Gross National Happiness in this world. Our community sponsors help us in one of two ways.

One way is through a reciprocal flow of energy in promoting one's organizations and events. We strive to create individualized programs to meet the needs and level of reciprocity we have with each sponsor.

The second way is through an annual donation of $60.00. Both approaches will ensure that your organizational information and logo are listed on our community sponsor page. The latter, however, also provides you with a business card size ad in our monthly newsletter, which is currently emailed out to approximately 400 people. We also ask that you list basic information about Inspiritual and our services on your website. Our community sponsors are the only ones who we allow to advertise in our newsletter.

If you are interested in either of our programs, please let us know which one you are most interested in being involved. In either case, we will need the following information:

- | | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| * Name of Organization | * Description of Organization |
| * Contact Person | * Phone |
| * Email | * Website |
| * Your logo (in jpeg or gif format) | |

If you would prefer to participate via a reciprocal flow of energy, please let us know what you are willing to provide to help promote and support our efforts to help people heal, evolve, and transform spiritually as well as how we can support you in return.

Our community sponsor information is on our website at - <http://inspiritual.biz/community-sponsors-resources/> ♦

"If your interested in helping out for next year's drive, please don't hesitate to contact us.:

This year we were able to help 60 children with their Christmas wishes. Last year our count was 70 children. Next year, we hope to increase the number of children and families we're able to reach.

In order for a family to participate, we only ask that they provide us with documentation of financial need and provide us with pictures of received gifts and children opening received gifts.

The parents of the children are asked to send proof that they need the help. They have to send pictures of recent check stubs, proof of welfare, that kind of thing. We focus our time and resources on families that are willing to work with our criteria. It's important to our organization that our potential sponsors and sponsors view Smiles for Children as reputable and dedicated to helping provide for families that are truly in need.

In return, sponsored families are asked to send photos (to our page) of gifts when they arrive, and photos of children unwrapping gifts. Pictures are to be submitted on Christmas Day, when the children open their gifts.

Our criteria are set up as a way of showing joy and gratitude. Parents, children and sponsors get to share in the experience, which is loved by everyone.

If you'd like to make a difference and would like to assist with next year's drive, please contact me via Facebook. Thank you all so much. ♦

As candle lovers, we ventured into the candle industry looking for ways to enhance the candle experience. Our dream was to create candles that last longer, smell great, and are an eco-friendly alternative to paraffin candles.

We started with 100% soy wax that is natural and burns clean in your home. Then, we added premium fragrances that transform your home into a relaxing and blissful experience.

In our pursuit, we discovered a variety of unique scents that make our candles simply irresistible. We continue to explore and expand our scent collection, offering new scents every week. When you light our surprise candles or tarts, you unlock a delightful experience that will transform your home and take you to paradise. Explore our fragrances and discover your Jewelry In Candles experience, now!

Inspiritual is a space for all those who come ready to look within and engage in a time of spiritual exploration and transformation. All are welcome!

It starts with your story.

Our lives are a story. They are a story about us, about what we believe, about the world we live in, about all that we have experienced and all that is yet to come. It is a story about what we know and what we have yet to understand.

We seek the spiritual in everyday life.

Each day is filled with the opportunities for teachable moments. Together we journey together learning from the arts, film, prose, poetry, meditations, and everyday experiences.

Fusion of traditions and beliefs

We see spiritual formation as a fusion of the esoteric wisdom of the world's ancient spiritual traditions with innovative writings and wisdoms of today. Through the movement beyond artificial boundaries, we grow in our understanding of ourselves, of the Infinite, and of the world in which we live. In our approach, we seek to: listen to and honor individual, communal and spiritual stories; recognize that one's entire life is an ongoing revelation of the Infinite Presence; honor and value the process. It is all about the journey, not how long it takes to get there; blend ancient and modern spiritual wisdoms; draw upon the expressive and creative arts to grow in our understanding of the Infinite; and move towards a way of being in the world which, is about love, grace, and compassion. ♡
